

To be a St. John's Scientist we will:

Ask curious questions

Be hands on

Articulate what we know

Observe and notice patterns

Link our knowledge

Use scientific vocabulary

Make predictions in the real world

